COURT ORDERS SURVEY AT KASHI TEMPLE SITE

A Varanasi court on Thursday ordered a survey of Kashi Vishwanath temple and Gyanvapi Mosque complex by the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI). The court further directed the Uttar Pradesh government to bear the cost of the survey. The ASI is likely to set up a five-member team that will visit the campus soon. The court also stipulated that at least two members of the archaeologist team should be from the minority community. P9

No national lockdown: PM

Micro-containment zones should be considered, says Modi

MANISH ANAND @ New Delhi

DISAPPROVING of political blame game over vaccine availability and rejecting rumours of a lockdown, Prime Minister Narendra Modi urged chief ministers on Thursday to focus on testing, tracking and treating, besides suggesting micro-containment zones as the strategy to deal with the rising Covid-19 cases. Amid widespread rumours on a fresh lockdown, Modi said states should work on local micro-containment zones instead and proactively test all asymptomatic cases.

"Lockdown, as a strategy, worked last year when enough facilities and means to contain the Covid-19 cases weren't available. Now, we have much better health infrastructure, including testing labs, and also the vaccines along with experiences," he said and advised that the night curfews be called "Corona curfews" for better awareness of the people to follow the Covid-19 protocols.

In the backdrop of the Maharashtra government and the Centre engaging in a slugfest over the availability of vaccines, Modi said he didn't want to get into vaccine politics.

10 pm-5 am curfew in 7 cities from tomorrow

ANUSHA RAVI @ Bengaluru

AS if sounding a warning bell, with the number of Covid-19 cases increasing by the day, Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa on Thursday announced night curfew between 10 pm and 5 am, for 10 days in seven district headquarters. The decision came after Prime Minister Narendra Modi, in his video conference with chief ministers of various states, suggested that 'corona curfew' was an effective way to curb the spread of the pandemic. Karnataka, which had held off so far, has joined the likes of Punjab, Maharashtra and New Delhi to announce night curfew in a few cities.

Starting Saturday, the night curfew will be enforced in the district headquarters of Bengaluru city, Mysuru city, Tumakuru city, Udupi-Manipal, Mangaluru city, Bidar city and Kalaburagi city.

Vaccine shortage grips some states

Beneficiaries argue with officials outside a closed Covid-19 vaccination centre in Mumbai after the jab went out of stock on Thursday | PTI

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

SHORTAGE of Covid-19 vaccines has forced 60 vaccination centres across Maharashtra to shut — 27 in Mumbai alone. Satara, Sangali, Gondia and Panvel stopped vaccination on Thursday. The state had received 1.4 crore doses, of which just 9 lakh are left now. The Centre has announced 7.5 lakh more doses.

In Uttar Pradesh's Ghaziabad, people were reportedly turned away by hospitals, citing unavailability of vaccines.

Odisha has also reported acute shortage of doses. On Thursday alone, as many as 670 vaccination centres downed shutters due to the scarcity. On Wednesday, 692 centres were closed.

However, the situation is fairly better in southern states, except in Andhra, where the vaccine stock will last only for the next two days. Other southern states have stock for over 10 days.

Fresh India, China disengagement talks to be held today

MAYANK SINGH AND PUSHKAR BANAKAR @ New Delhi

A day ahead of the 11th round of Sino-Indian Corps Commander-level talks, there was quiet optimism on the Indian side of some movement forward on further disengagement at friction points along the Line of Actual Control (LAC) in Ladakh.

A senior Army officer said, "We are hopeful of some positive outcome. The talks will begin at 10.30 am tomorrow."

In Bejing, Chinese Foreign Ministry spokesperson Zhao Lijian refused to be drawn into committing that India's demand of restoring status quo as of April 2020 would be on the talks table. "That is something for the two sides to discuss," he said. April 2020 refers to the pre-incursion situation along the LAC.

His Indian counterpart Arindam Bagchi said India would like disengagement in remaining areas of friction. "This will provide us the atmosphere of improving bilateral ties," he said.

The last round of talks was held on February 19 at Moldo on the Chinese side of the LAC, immediately after full disengagement from all friction points at Pangong Tso. Both sides had pulled back their heavy artillary and troops on both the north and south banks of the Pangong lake in a phased, coordinated and verified manner a few weeks ago.

The stand-off, however, continues at Depsang, Gogra, Hot Spring, and in the Charding Ninglung Nallah track junction in the Demchok sector.

Maoists free abducted commando

SANA SHAKIL AND EJAZ KAISER @ New Delhi/Raipur

WHEN an abducted CRPF commando walked free after five days in Maoist captivity on Thursday, his release was as much due to the intervention of mediators as to the crucial role played by local journalists in the conflict zone of Bastar. The CoBRA commando, Rakeshwar Singh Manhas, reached the paramilitary's Tarrem camp riding pillion on the bike of a journalist, who along with his six colleagues, had reached the site of a jan adaalat in the Maoist stronghold of Pamed, around 450 km south of th state capital Raipur.

Sources said Manhas was released around 4:30 pm in the presence of social workers Dharampal Saini and Gondwana Samaj chief Gelam Boraiya, and hundreds of villagers. Of the 11 people who had gone to secure Manhas' release, seven were local journalists. This is not the first time that journalists have successfully negotiated the safe return of security personnel. CONTINUED ON: P10

More staff return to work, but bus strike continues

Corporations suspend some staff for taking part in strike, unions remain firm

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

AS the indefinite strike by employees of the four state-run transport corporations entered the second day on Thursday, many drivers and conductors reported to work, though the employees' unions maintained that the strike will continue. While some staffers claimed that they were forced to return, others said they could not make citizens suffer and rejoined duties.

According to an official release, 446 buses belonging to the four corporations resumed operations on Day 2. Around 4,412 private buses ferried passengers for Karnataka State Road Transport Corporation (KSRTC), 2,188 for North Western KRTC and 4,278 for North Eastern KRTC.

Also, 524 buses from Tamil Nadu, 299 from Andhra Pradesh, 25 from Telangana and 30 from Kerala transport corporations operated from Bengaluru to ferry passengers to various destinations in the state.

While the unions remained adamant on their stand, Transport Department officials tried to convince those on strike that it was citizens who were being inconvenienced. The unions also held a meeting and said the strike will continue indefinitely.

Principal Secretary to the Transport Department, Anjum Pervez, told media persons that there are around 26,000 buses which ply in the state in all four corporations, including the Bangalore Metropolitan Transport Corporation (BMTC). To substitute for this, 18,000 private vehicles have been arranged and the permits of all those who had surrendered them have been renewed so that they can ply on the roads.

Private and maxi-cabs continued to ferry people, but did not see the desired numbers even on the second day. Also, despite the the warning from Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa and the Transport Department, they were seen charging excess fare.

Pervez added that talks with private operators was held to ensure that commuters do not face problems. He pointed that due to the strike, in last two days, the corporations have suffered losses to the tune of Rs 20 crore.

After holding a meeting with officials from BMTC, KSRTC, NEKRTC and NWKRTC, Pervez told the unions: "The government had agreed to most of the demands of the employees. However, we cannot revise pay based on the 6th Pay Commission recommendations. But, once in four years, during revision of wages, we will give good salary hikes and other facilities."

Meanwhile, the KSRTC suspended 32 trainees while the BMTC suspended 96 employees for participating in the strike.

A Transport Department official said, "More trainees will be terminated if they do not return to work. If this is how trainees are behaving, then it is better they do not work. In the case of others, notices will be slapped on them in the coming days. Going by the way they are gradually returning, it seems like the strike will end in a couple of days."

Officials said six buses were damaged, and in one case, petrol was thrown on a driver in Kolar. But the striking employees have termed the allegations as baseless. "Why will we damage the buses we drive? We have not even come on to the roads. We will not damage buses which earn us a living," they claimed.

Apart from this, as part of Ugadi special, the South Western Railways also announced running of more trains for the benefit of passengers. Namma Metro continues to see and increase in footfall as buses were off roads. Some others also continued to use their personal transport to reach their destinations.

Officials to convince students to appear for SSLC examination

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

MOST schools have completed the SSLC syllabus and students are now revising it before the exam. They should be motivated to appear for the examination as there have been doubts over them writing the exam because of the present Covid scenario, said Primary and Secondary Education Minister S Suresh Kumar.

Talking to DDPIs and BEOs of Bengaluru North, South and Rural on Thursday, he told them to ensure that students who have enrolled do not miss the exam. The exam should be held with integrity and monitored strictly. Officials will face disciplinary action if they focus on unnecessary aspects of the exam, he warned.

At taluk or hobli level, head teachers will be informed about pepping up students and steps taken to conduct the exam.

Officials have been told to keep track of students who have registered for the board exam, but did not attend classes. Officials should follow up with these students, contact them over phone to counsel them and to convince them to attend the exam, he said. Each exam hall will have only 18-20 students to counter the spread of Coronavirus, he added.

Some schools have completed the syllabus, while others are a few chapters short of completion. Wherever there is a shortage of staff, teachers should be temporarily shifted from nearby schools to complete the syllabus, he said.

Kumar, who is on a statewide tour to examine whether the SSLC syllabus has been completed, inspected four districts in Belagavi division.

He said steps have been taken for inter-departmental coordination for the exam. Officials should ensure that the students are not inconvenienced as the exam is being held during monsoon, he added.

Can't stop traffic in Cubbon Park: Govt

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE state government decided that the movement of traffic within Cubbon Park cannot be avoided and should continue as before. The state recently informed its decision to the Karnataka High Court in response to a contempt petition filed by Cubbon Park Walkers Association.

While disposing a PIL filed by the association on October 22, 2020, the court had directed Chief Secretary P Ravi Kumar and the then Urban Development Department's Additional Chief Secretary Rakesh Singh to consider the petitioner's representation on regulating traffic. Since the same was not considered, the petitioner filed a contempt petition.

In response to the court's notice on the petition, the state government advocate submitted that after reviewing all the departments' opinions, they came to the said decision.

In view of this submission, the division bench of Justice BV Nagarathna and Justice N S Sanjay Gowda dropped the contempt proceedings against the Chief Secretary and Additional Chief Secretary.

09th April: I want to say some more about time, the topic which astrologers study. One idea which interests a lot of astrologers is how different times are linked. Some say that when certain planets are active we experience the same conditions as we did the last time the same pattern occurred, only in a slightly different form.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Professional and business regions of your chart are looking unstable. The only certain consequence is that where there is change, there lies opportunity. Seize it while you can, for the same offer might not come round again, at least not until your desires have altered.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Your mind and emotions are buzzing with energy. Life is full of potential for endings, but also for new beginnings. Sometimes this will be difficult, sometimes easy. Do yourself a favour and look at the underlying purpose of even apparently chance events.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
Intensity in relationships will be matched by a sense of insecurity and anticipation in finances. Psychologists have seen connections between money and desire. You will try to balance your need for emotional stimulation with your longing for material security.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
This doesn't look like a good moment for compromise. This isn't to say that you shouldn't try, but that your efforts will probably fall on stony ground. It's far better to state your case as honestly as you can, and give others a fair hearing.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Watch out at work - and in all dealings with people in authority. Such ambitious and pompous people are likely to be increasingly irrational, even though they imagine they are being reasonable. Don't rise to provocation, for you'll be walking straight into a trap.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
It is time to dredge your psychological and emotional depths for every single forgotten talent and creative gift. It's a really good time for creative self-expression, so indulge yourself while you can. And don't let routine duties stand in your way.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Your finances could be in turmoil, your family life driven by radical change. The least you can expect is someone close putting on an emotional display and flouncing out! Will you run after them? Take a good, long look and make a cool and calculated decision.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Mercury, ruling your intellect, now links up with Pluto, which signifies your deepest instincts. The best that can be hoped for is a flash of enlightenment; the worst, that you'll mistake your personal desires for universal truth and end up on the wrong track.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
A business association, joint financial arrangement or intensely personal matter has been fraught with difficulties. If these are brought into the open, everyone will know them and all will be well. If you can create harmony now then it should last for a long time.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
If anything, today's social and emotional patterns are more dramatic, revolutionary and unpredictable than yesterday's. It will be a rare person who does not face at least one intriguing encounter. There is nothing to say except expect the unexpected!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
The gulf between what is said and what is not is so great that any real understanding seems impossible. The only truth seems to be the old mystical paradox that nothing is true. It could now be time to let a friend into a secret, by the way.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
It's because of your deep and intuitive understanding of the truly bizarre nature of reality that you're in a better position than most people. In fact, if you care to start implementing a few of your dreams you could do very nicely indeed.

CJ appeals to lawyers to appear via video conference

Bengaluru: Chief Justice of the Karnataka High Court Abhay Shreeniwas Oka on Thursday appealed to advocates to attend hearings through video conferencing instead of appearing physically, as a precaution against Covid-19. While hearing a case, the Chief Justice said, "We want courts to function somehow. There are only 12 days to go for summer vacation. So lawyers can join through video conferencing." He also appealed to all staffers aged above 45 years of age, of the principal High Court bench in Bengaluru, benches in Dharwad, Kalaburagi and districts, and trial courts in the state, to get vaccinated as soon as possible.

Active cases touch 53,395 in Karnataka

Bengaluru: Karnataka on Thursday saw a slight dip in caseload, with 6,570 cases added to the tally, as against 6,976 cases on Wednesday. With this, the number of active cases crossed the 50,000-mark and stood at 53,395. It was 49,254 on Wednesday. The state has seen a jump to the next thousand almost back-to-back since March 16, when the total active cases were 9,428 -- an indication of the second wave intensifying across the state. The last time Karnataka saw over 50,000 active cases was on November 1, at 50,592 cases, but the first wave was on the wane then. The growth in active cases in the past two days is upwards of 8.40 per cent. It was 9.19 per cent on Wednesday. The number of recovered patients stood at 2,392, a dip from the previous day's figure of 2,794. The total recoveries stand at 9,73,949, with the recovery rate slipping from 94 per cent on Wednesday to 93.63 per cent. The positivity rate remains at 4.65 per cent. There were 36 deaths, up from 35 on Wednesday, and the total number of deaths was 12,767. The mortality rate was 1.22 per cent on Thursday, down a notch from 1.23 per cent on Wednesday, and now stands at the lowest percentage since the pandemic broke out last March.

8,500 BOOTH-LEVEL TEAMS TO BE BACK

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE 8,500 booth-level task force committees set up in Bengaluru last year will be revived, and be given the responsibility of house-to-house surveys to check who is not vaccinated, how many have Covid-19 symptoms, getting people tested and monitoring those in home isolation. This was decided after a meeting held by Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar with BBMP Chief Commissioner Gaurav Gupta and officials of Bengaluru Urban and Rural districts. "The teams will comprise booth-level officers, health and BBMP officials, citizen volunteers, NGOs etc. Last year, the committees did not function optimally, but this time, the Chief Commissioner has assured us that they will," Sudhakar said, adding that people should cooperate when officials come for checks.

"With about 50,000 tests a day, Bengaluru is reporting nearly 5,000 cases. Hence, we have set a target of one lakh tests per day in the city. Samples will be taken in crowded public places. The rule is to test 20 primary and secondary contacts for one Covid-positive person," he said.

Pharmacies, clinics and hospitals have been asked to look out for those with ILI and SARI symptoms. About 2,000 Home Guards will be deployed to support marshals in enforcing Covid Appropriate Behaviour.

A meeting will be held with private hospitals and medical colleges on allocation of 50 per cent of beds for government-referred Covid-19 patients, and for private patients. "We have 1,000-plus beds under government quota now, and the BBMP Chief Commissioner has asked for 6,000 beds. Based on cases and trajectory given by the Covid-19 Technical Advisory Committee, we will increase the number of beds," he added. There is no shortage of vaccines, 25-30 lakh doses are available in Karnataka, and the Centre has promised 25 lakh additional doses, he informed.

The minister talked tough on those who violate norms, and appealed to people not to attend religious functions, fairs and weddings, warning that licences of establishments flouting rules will be cancelled. Asked why the same rules were not applied to election rallies in poll-bound districts, he said more cases were being reported from Bengaluru and not those districts.

EXPERTS DIVIDED OVER NEW SYMPTOMS OF FRESH WAVE

High incidence of patients with gastric issues, hearing loss, conjunctivitis

A health worker takes a swab sample of a woman for an RT-PCR test, in Bengaluru on Thursday | VINOD KUMAR T

It may be too early to say if this is a new variant. I have not seen any rare symptoms as such, and these were reported earlier too

Dr Ravindra Mehta, Chief of Pulmonology and Critical Care, Apollo Hospitals

CHETANA BELAGERE @ Bengaluru

WHILE there are many posts from pulmonologists circulating on social media about Covid-19 patients reporting different viral symptoms, unlike the classic signs of the infection in the second wave, experts in Karnataka are divided over these new symptoms.

The posts on social media claim there is an increase in patients coming with conjunctivitis, severe gastric issues, abdominal pain, palpitations, along with dysfunction of the Eustachian tube or hearing loss.

"I see many patients coming in with redness in the eye which can be called 'pink eye' and complaining of muffled hearing and pain in the ears. These are new symptoms which can be linked to 'post-acute sequelae of Covid-19' (PASC)," said Dr Mohan G, ENT consultant, Sagar Hospitals.

Interestingly, in the second wave, doctors have apparently found that gastrointestinal (GI) symptoms precede respiratory symptoms. "While I have seen some with severe abdominal pain, many come with diarrhoea and sudden catch in the stomach. These may not be new symptoms, but earlier there were about 2 per cent patients, but now the number has gone up to 50 per cent," said Dr Bindumath P L, senior consultant for internal medicine at Aster CMI Hospital.

Doctors in Karnataka say they have seen some patients with strain not domiciled in the nasopharyngeal region but directly in the lungs, which means the window periods are shortened, leading to pneumonia, but this can't be generalised yet.

Dr Shashikiran Umakanth, Professor and Head, Department of Medicine, and nodal officer, Covid-19, Dr TMA Pai Hospital, Udupi, said, "I have read the posts, but so far, we haven't seen any new symptoms, as such, in patients in Udupi. However, there have been very few cases of patients with no fever, but an X-ray shows moderate or mild chest pneumonia. But it may be too early to comment on this," he said.

Some doctors have claimed the new variant is highly infectious and can easily spread to the lungs, respiratory passageways and cause pneumonia, which is a lethal Covid complication.

However, Dr Satyanarayana Mysore, renowned pulmonologist and HOD, Sleep Medicine, Manipal Hospitals, Bengaluru, said, "These symptoms were there earlier too. Maybe the number of people coming in with such symptoms has gone up due to more testing, and awareness. Also, doctors are adapting to a syndromic approach to testing, hence such cases are getting detected," he explained.

State govt quashes Mysuru DC's orders

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mysuru

A slew of restrictions and guidelines announced by Deputy Commissioner Rohini Sindhuri were struck down by the state government on Thursday evening. Amid rumours of another lockdown, the DC had announced that negative reports were mandatory to visit tourist places, resorts, clubs, theatres and convention halls, and an advisory for travellers from Bengaluru, causing confusion.

However, by evening, the order was nullified by Principal Secretary, Revenue Department (Disaster Management, Bhoomi & UPOR) Dr Manjunath Prasad who issued an order stating that such matters were not under the purview of the DC and will be decided by the state government under Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa's supervision.

When contacted, senior officials from the district administration clarified that they were aware of the orders but no official communique has been issued by the DC herself. Stakeholders of the tourism sector were relived after the DC's orders were revoked.

Mass suspended in churches

Bengaluru: The Archdiocese of Bangalore has suspended all public religious services in churches, chapels and institutions in Bengaluru Urban and Rural districts till April 20, following the State government's new Covid directives. Churches and chapels, however, can be kept open for private visits and adoration, and priests can conduct private services with limited participants, said Dr Peter Machado, Archbishop of Bengaluru, in a statement on Thursday. Not more than 50 people will be allowed for funerals, and funeral masses will not be held in churches. For sacramental celebrations, not more than 50 people will be allowed. The Archdiocese has also decided to hold pre-liturgical and liturgical services, such as daily and Sunday Mass in different languages on its YouTube, Facebook and other livestreaming channels. ENS

Is your business growing?

Why is growth necessary?
Growing your business is a fundamental aspect for a business owner. The focus on growth provides direction to numerous changes in a business and sharpens the decision-making process. Without growth, there is no impetus for the business owner to make changes and will result in the business-facing with the changes to the overall environment.

Where to look for growth?
Growth can be found in building new products, providing new services to existing products, entering new geographies, creating joint ventures and many more.

Measures of growth
Usually, growth is measured as a financial increase, for example, an increase in annual turnover or revenues. Though this is a good measure, there are other measures that can also be used to measure the growth of a firm. Here are some good examples: an increase in brand value, increase media exposure, an increase in average employee retention, increase customer satisfaction. Most of these non-financial measures are difficult to measure and therefore a majority of business owners neglect them.

Singh, who was in Mangaluru to take part in a function at the residence of BJP state president Nalin Kumar Kateel, said, "I have spoken to Eshwarappa. THE highest decision-making body of state BJP, the Core Committee, which was reconstituted about a fortnight ago, will meet on April 18, a day after voting for two Assembly and one Lok Sabha bypolls.

The Core committee is expected to discuss the standoff between Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa and Rural Development and Panchayat Raj Minister K S Eshwarappa over a letter written by the latter to Governor Vajubhai Vala over the chief minister's alleged interference in his ministry.

Party MLA Basanagouda Patil Yatnal's attacks against Yediyurappa and his family too may be taken up. The other issue that is likely to figure in the meeting is allocating district responsibilities to some of the newly inducted ministers, like Umesh katti, Murugesh Nirani, MTB Nagaraj and R Shankar. This may lead to changes in the present list of district in-charge ministers, sources said.

The committee is likely to take up complaints of over 50 MLAs, who had complained to the chief minister that many ministers were not accessible to redress their grievances.

The committee may analyse the three bypolls and also discuss strengthening of the party at the booth level, the sources added.

The newly constituted core committee consists of Yediyurappa, state party president Nalin Kumar Kateel, Union Ministers Pralhad Joshi and DV Sadananda Gowda, Eshwarappa, Industries Minister Jagadish Shettar, Deputy Chief Ministers Dr C N Ashwath Narayan, Govinda Karjol and Laxman Savadi, Revenue Minister R Ashok, Social Welfare Minister B Sriramulu and party state vice-president Nirmal Kumar Surana. BJP General Secretary BP Arun Kumar, Co-In-charge D K Aruna and General Secretary CT Ravi are special invitees. Arvind Limbavali and C M Udasi were dropped from the committee after the recent restructuring.

The BJP state office will coordinate the meeting and those who cannot be present physically, considering the Covid spike, may be given the option of participating online.

Caste, sympathy factors won't work in Belagavi polls: Satish

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @Gokak

A master strategist who has played a key role in Congress' victory in various Assembly elections, Satish Jarkiholi has carved himself a niche in state politics. After entering the political arena as a director of Belagavi District Central Cooperative Bank in 1992, he has gone on to win two Council and three Assembly elections.

A Congress candidate in the bypoll to Belgavi Lok Sabha seat, he enjoys mass support in the constituency. Ahead of polls on April 17, he told The New Indian Express that he is confident of bagging over seven lakh votes and winning against BJP's Mangala Angadi, wife of former Minister of State for Railways late Suresh Angadi. Excerpts from an interview.

You always had bigger dreams in state politics. Did you enter the fray under pressure from party leadership?

Absolutely not. But everyone in the party has to abide by the decision taken by the high command and so did I. Congress fielded me because of my potential to face and win such big-ticket elections. If I was not interested in contesting the bypoll, I would not be busy preparing for it for the last two months.

What do you say about BJP fielding Mangala to garner sympathy votes?

Lok Sabha elections are decided on the issue of development. Other factors don't take the centre stage. I have been in politics for more than 25 years and I have struggled to get developmental works done in various parts of the state. I want people to know that I am at their service.

How's the response for your campaigning?

I found out that a large number of people are working in my favour. Most of the rallies have evoked tremendous response.

How do you think the dominant Lingayat community will vote this time?

The Jarkiholi family has a strong rapport with most of the communities in the constituency for the last two decades which is evident from the victories we have registered. I am sure voters, whether they are Lingayat or others, will rally behind me because of my performance. The caste factor never works in this constituency.

Your brothers, Balachandra and Ramesh (both BJP), have stayed away from campaigning. Will this help you?

I think it will certainly benefit me. The people in Arbhavi and Gokak constituencies -- represented by Balachandra and Ramesh -- vote for Jarkiholis and not the party.

What is your prediction?

I think I will get over 7 lakh votes and win the election. Around 12 lakh votes will definitely be cast in this election.

Mangala will be victorious in Belagavi, says Yediyurappa

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Belagavi

WITH less than 10 days left for the by-election to the Belagavi Lok Sabha seat, Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa will take out a road show on April 14 in the city. Yediyurappa had a whirlwind campaign tour in the constituency on Wednesday.

Speaking to media persons here on Thursday, Yediyurappa expressed confidence that BJP candidate Mangala Angadi, wife of the late Union Minister Suresh Angadi, will win by a huge margin of votes.

"The former minister had won by a margin of about four lakh votes in the previous election and his wife will repeat it," he added.

On the ongoing road transport corporation employees' strike across the state, he said, "Why should I invite them (protesting employees) for talks? Already eight of their demands have been fulfilled by the government. They should immediately withdraw their agitation and resume bus services."

As he was heading to Bengaluru, the Chief Minister, however, said he will hold talks with the agitators to end the stir.

He warned that he would initiate legal action against the protesters if they refused to budge even after he held talks with them.

People of all communities are like brothers to us: DKS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Belagavi

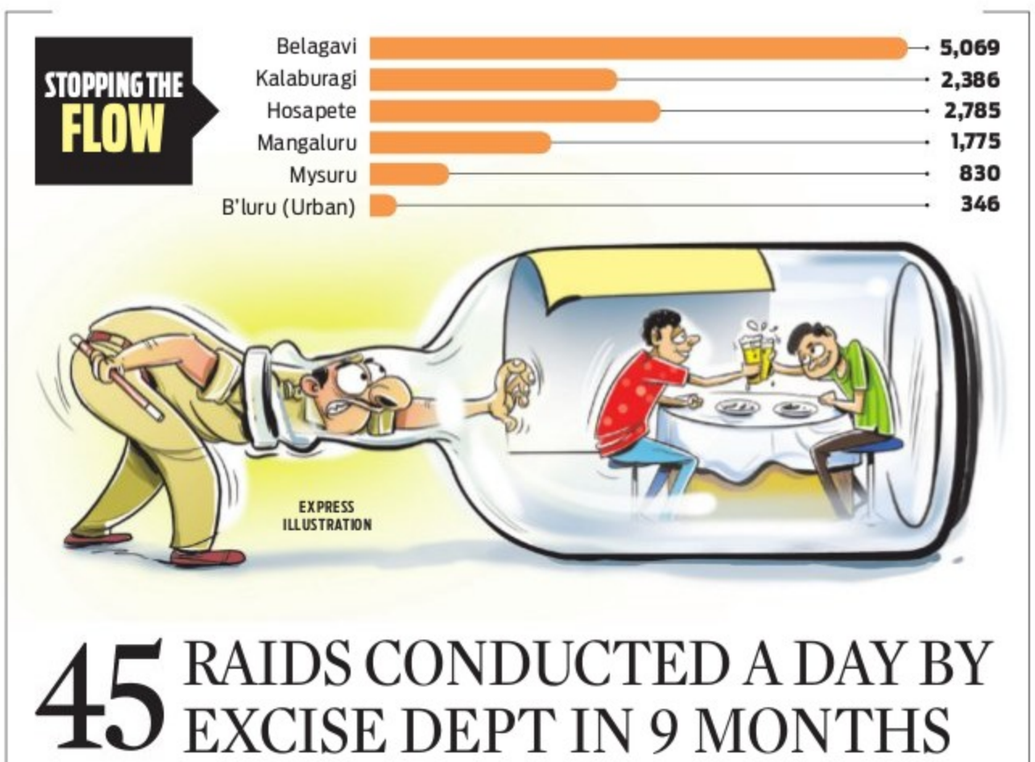
KPCC chief D K Shivakumar hit out at the BJP, alleging that the party was involved in communal politics. Speaking at a press conference here on Thursday, ahead of the forthcoming bypolls to the Belagavi Lok Sabha seat, he said, "For the Congress, whether it is the Lingayats, Marathas or backward classes, the people of all communities are like brothers to us. While the BJP tries to indulge in politics based on caste, the Congress did politics based on its principles."

Speaking on the Congress' campaign for the Belagavi Lok Sabha seat, he said that he had been travelling extensively across the constituency to meet leaders and people from different sections of society.

"I met farmer leader Babagouda Patil, besides many communist leaders and members from various associations. Most of them are in favour of the Congress candidate (Satish Jarkiholi)," he said.

Shivakumar said he was keen to send a strong message to the ruling government in the state.

"The BJP government did not respond to the long-drawn farmers' agitation in New Delhi and it has badly hurt the self-respect of farmers, who are present in large numbers in Maski, Basavakalyan and Belagavi constituencies which are going to bypolls," he added.



45 RAIDS CONDUCTED A DAY BY EXCISE DEPT IN 9 MONTHS

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @Bengaluru

THE Excise Department conducted an average of 45 raids a day on illicit liquor units across the state since July 2020, making it one of the busiest seasons for the department. Since the officials face threats by those being raided, the department is planning to train its staff in using firearms, and also procure more guns and vehicles to make raids more effective.

The department aims to meet its revenue target of Rs 25,000 crore this year, which will largely be helped by the number of successful raids conducted.

But during the financial year 2020-21, there was no liquor sale till April because of the lockdown and raids started only in July. Data available with The New Indian Express shows that in the last nine months, 13,191 raids have been conducted, including those carried out jointly with other departments. In all, 182 people were arrested, thousands of litres of liquor seized and destroyed and 110 vehicles seized.

Department sources said that they exceeded the last year's target by Rs 431 crore, and this year, they are aiming at Rs 25,000 crore. "For this, we need to keep an eye on illicit liquor units that are avoiding paying taxes to the government. We will definitely conduct more raids than last year," they added.

But at many places, department officials, who would not have carried guns, have returned without conducting raids after being threatened by the staff of illegal units.

The department now has some old guns that are not in working condition. "This is why criminals are not scared of department officials," the sources added.

Excise Minister K Gopaliah told The New Indian Express there have been many instances of department officials being attacked during raids. "We have decided to ask the police department to provide arms training to our officers. I will discuss this with Home Minister Basavaraj Bommai," he said.

Guns will be given to officials who work under deputy commissioners in each district. The department is also procuring 77 jeeps and 300 motorbikes for inspectors and other officials.

State to prioritise PM's call for vax drive

WHILE all commercial activities will be prohibited during the curfew hours, essential services, including transport, will be allowed.

"All commercial activities like hotels, bars, pubs, clubs, gatherings, events will be prohibited, but essential services won't be disrupted. We aren't enforcing a lockdown, but people have to cooperate and adhere to protocols. If cases do not come under control, we may have to extend the night curfew to other parts of the State as well," warned Yediyurappa, dropping hints about the idea behind the night curfew. He added that state will prioritise Prime Minister Narendra Modi's call for 'Tika Utsav' (vaccination festival) between April 11 and 14.

Yediyurappa presented Karnataka's testing, tracking and tracing averages, apart from vaccination target achievements, to display the state's commitment to contain the spread of Covid-19. "Six thousand vaccination centers are working daily. Of these, 5,400 are in government facilities and 600 in private facilities. So far, we have vaccinated more than 53 lakh people. We have vaccinated 22.31 per cent of the target population above 45 years of age as compared to the national average of 13.94 per cent as on April 5," Yediyurappa pointed out.

Sources in the CMO suggested that the decision to announce the night curfew comes after much reluctance. While the Technical Advisory Committee on Covid-19 and Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar have been insisting on restricting weekend activities, announcing restrictions during nights and gatherings, the CM was keen on not disrupting any businesses.

But given the surge in the number of cases and infection rates and the push for night curfew from the PM, a 10-day night curfew was announced. Given its financial situation, the government was keen on not disrupting any commercial activities, but the possible burden on healthcare facilities, if the surge continues, has emerged a bigger challenge, calling for a balancing act.

"There are many scientists among us who ask if Covid-19 spreads only during the night. But this 'Corona curfew', a new term used by PM Modi, is an attempt to create awareness and warn people about the seriousness of the pandemic. People have to adhere to protocols, use masks and avoid gatherings," said Sudhakar. He added that there will be no restriction on inter-district movement.

Even as he claimed that political parties will also be asked to hold rallies by adhering to specific restrictions, Yediyurappa said the Rs 250 fine for not wearing masks will be implemented more stringently in the state.

The PM asked states to ramp up pro-active testing instead of focusing on vaccinations. While insisting that lockdown is not the way forward, Modi batted for night curfews, and monitoring micro-containment zones.

Mamta Basu

Debrath Behra

IN a case of murder for gain, a 75-year-old woman and her son's friend were found murdered in her house in Puttenahalli, JP Nagar 7th Phase, early Thursday morning. The bodies Mamta Basu from West Bengal, and Debrath Behra (41) from Odisha, were found in a pool of blood by the domestic help.

Police said the assailants seemed to be known to the family, and had escaped with a laptop, gold and the DVR attached to a CCTV camera installed outside for surveillance.

Debrath had recently got a job as software engineer with an MNC in Bengaluru, and had come to the city 20 days ago. A close friend of Mamta's son Devdeep Basu, he was staying at the house with work from home option. His wife and kid were expected to join him in a few days from Odisha. Devdeep, a professor at a private college, was staying nearby in Samptrupti Layout in Konanakunte ward.

A senior police officer said the incident took place around midnight, and preliminary investigation indicates the killers entered the house to kill the duo.

Mamta's body was found on her bed in her ground floor bedroom, while Behra's body was found in another room. Indications of a scuffle between Behra and his attackers seemed evident from the preliminary probe, showing that he had tried to escape from them. Both were stabbed to death.

The incident came to light early in the morning when Mamta's domestic help arrived and called the neighbours, who alerted the police control room. The Puttenahalli police, a dog squad and forensic team rushed to the crime scene.

The house was ransacked, and gold and cash were found stolen. Senior police officers, including City Police Commissioner Kamal Pant visited the house and supervised the investigation.

Based on a complaint by Devdeep, a case of murder was registered. Police also learnt that Devdeep had visited his mother's house on Wednesday night for dinner, before returning home.

He told police that Mamta would open the door only after identifying the visitor in the CCTV camera installed outside the house. Besides, there was no evidence of a forced entry into the house, which indicated that the attackers were known to Mamta.

A special team was formed to crack the case. "We are probing all angles," a police officer said.

Debrath's family is yet to arrive to receive the body.

Court sentences former KIADB officer, villager to two years in corruption case

MG CHETAN @Bengaluru

THE CASE

- Officer sought Rs 10 lakh to disburse compensation of Rs 1.39 cr to second accused though latter not a landowner
- Muniraju falsely claimed he was actual owner of the acquired land and got compensation

A city court has convicted a retired KAS officer and another person in a corruption case, and sentenced them to two years of imprisonment. Accused K B Chikkabettaiah, who is 71-year-old now, was a Special Land Acquisition Officer (SLAO) with the Karnataka Industrial Area Development Board (KIADB). He had disbursed a compensation of Rs 1.39 crore to the other accused, Muniraju, a resident of Horamavu village, though the latter was not the landowner.

During investigation of the case in 2010, the Lokayukta police found that KIADB officers were involved in corruption and criminal misappropriation during payment of compensation in favour of landowners in land acquisition proceedings. In pursuance of the report, a case was registered against Chikkabettaiah, and others. During the probe, the police secured the case file and documents relating to the payment of compensation pertaining to Survey no. 74/2 of Arebinnamangala village in Bengaluru taluk.

The investigations had revealed that the SLAO had disbursed a compensation of Rs 1,39,50,000 to Muniraju, even though the latter was not the actual owner of the property. The SLAO had demanded illegal gratification of Rs 10 lakh and Muniraju, who had falsely claimed he was the actual owner and purchaser of the acquired land through a registered sale deed, had received the compensation. After completion of the investigation, the Lokayukta police had filed the charge-sheet.

Lakshminarayana Bhat, the 23rd Additional City Civil and Sessions Judge and Special Judge for PC (Prevention of Corruption) Act cases, found the accused guilty on Tuesday. While Chikkabettaiah was levied a penalty of Rs 2.10 lakh, Muniraju was fined Rs 2 lakh.

Crime branch to probe Kannur murder case

UDF boycotts peace meet; accused say intention wasn't murder, target was Muslim League supporter's brother

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Kannur

THE investigation into the murder of Muslim League supporter Mansoor at Pullukkara near Panur on Tuesday night has been handed over to district Crime Branch.

Kannur City Police Commissioner R Ilango said a 15-member special team led by DySP K Ismail has been formed to probe the case.

"The police have already identified 11 persons involved in the attack. But the assailants have absconded. Seven of the gang members who had attacked Mansoor are from the neighbourhood," Ilango told reporters here on Thursday.

"So far, one person -- identified as Shinos, a DYFI member -- has been arrested in connection with the murder," he said.

A file picture of the crowd that gathered in front of the CPM local committee office at Peringathur after it was set afire by alleged IUML workers | EXPRESS

"As per the statement of Shinos -- who has been remanded in judicial custody -- the attack was carried out not with the intention to murder and the assailants' target was Mansoor's brother Muhasin," he said. "However, the real motive would be known only after all the accused are nabbed," he said.

Earlier in the day, the UDF boycotted the peace meeting convened by the district collector to ease the tension prevailing in the area following Mansoor's murder and the subsequent violence, where in several CPM offices were vandalised.

UDF leaders alleged that the police have been acting in a discriminator manner by arresting League workers in connection with the violence at Peringathur, but not arresting even a single person for Mansoor's murder.

Though UDF leaders, including DCC president Satheeshan Pacheni, UDF district convener P T Mathew, Muslim League district general secretary Abdul Karim Cheleri and state vice-president V K Abdul Khader Moulavi, reached the collectorate before 11am -- the scheduled time for the meeting – they expressed their anger against the "one-sided stance of the police" and boycotted the meeting.

They said the meeting was only a farce to cover up the inefficiency of the police.

"The police have failed miserably in ensuring justice to the family of Mansoor", said Pacheni. "Even as 48 hours have passed since the attack, the police could not nab any person in connection with the murder. The only person nabbed was, in fact, handed over to the police by injured Muhasin. This is shameful," said Pacheni.

GOLD SMUGGLING CASE

SANDEEP SAYS ED PLANTED EVIDENCE

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Kochi

THE state government on Thursday told the High Court that the statement of Sandeep Nair, one of the accused in the gold and dollar smuggling cases, reveals "shocking" facts about the criminal acts of the suspects in the case registered against officers of the Enforcement Directorate (ED).

The government said the investigation conducted so far based on the FIR registered on Sandeep's complaint revealed heinous offences of attempting to fabricate false evidence against representatives of the state's political executive at the instance of ED officials.

The state made the submission in response to the petitions filed by P Radhakrishnan, deputy director of ED-Kochi seeking to quash the FIRs registered by the crime branch.

The crime branch had registered two FIRs, one based on the audio clip of Sandeep's co-accused Swapna Suresh, in which she said that she was forced to make statements against Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan, and the second based on Sandeep's complaint.

SC lawyer Harin P Raval, who represents the state government, said the investigation under the PMLA by ED does not give it a licence to frame evidence and involve persons having no connection to the case.

HC: Music varsity V-C picked by CM, not panel

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court on Thursday found from records submitted to court that the name of Nagesh V Bettakote was approved for the post of Vice-Chancellor, by the Chancellor of the Karnataka State Dr Gangubai Hangal Music and Performing Arts University, Mysuru, based on a recommendation made by the Chief Minister.

A division bench of Chief Justice Abhay Shreeniwas Oka and Justice Suraj Govindaraj also found that Nagesh Bettakote was not among the three persons recommended by the second Search Committee.

The records submitted to court revealed that Nagesh Bettakote's name was among the three names recommended by the first Search Committee. These records were submitted in response to directions issued by the court, after hearing a petition filed by Sri Prasanna Vidya Ganapati Mahotsava Charitable Trust, Mysuru, questioning the appointment of Bettakote.

The second Search Committee was constituted based on a petition filed by one of the aspirants, following directions issued by the High Court in September 2020. However, the second Search Committee did not recommend the name of Bettakote.

Noting that the appointment of the Vice-Chancellor can be made from the three names recommended by the Search Committee, as per Section 12 of the Karnataka State Dr Gangubai Hangal Music and Performing Arts University Act, 2009, the Bench directed the State government to produce the noting and relevant file relating to the selection process of the Vice-Chancellor, and Bettakote's counsel to file statement of objections to the petition.

Will Dharwad whale skeleton make it to new Parl complex?

SUBHASH CHANDRA N S @ Karwar

A skeleton of a whale exhibited at the marine biology department in Karnatak University has caught the attention of experts from the National Institute of Oceanography. They want to exhibit one such in the new Parliament Bhavan in Delhi, sources said. This whale was washed ashore at Bhatkal in 1971.

"NIO director Sridhar and others were here for some work and enquired about the process adopted by authorities to preserve it. He said the new parliament building will exhibit some of such rare species relics," Jagannath Rathod, head of the department, Marine Biology, Karnatak University Dharwad (KUD) told The New Indian Express.

Accordingly, the NIO officials have stated that rare findings or specimens will be displayed there.

"The skeleton of Baleen whale is a rare thing. They enquired about how it was mounted and exhibited here," said Shivakumar Haragi, asst professor, department of Marine Biology (DMB), KUD. The skeleton in the department has been a major attraction for researchers and students of Marine Biology for the past many decades.

Baleen whales or blue whales weighs up to 136 tonnes. However, the length of the skeleton is 12 metres and it weighs up to three tonnes.

TTD to prove Tirumala is birthplace of Lord Hanuman

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Tirumala

THE Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams (TTD) is all set to present epigraphical and scientific evidence to prove that Tirumala, the abode of Lord Venkateswara, is the birth place of Lord Anjaneya. The TTD will present the evidence on Telugu New Year Day Ugadi (April 13). The TTD wants to prove that Anjanadri, the birth place of Lord Anjaneya, is not Anjaneyadri hill at Hampi in Karnataka.

The TTD, in December 2020, has constituted a committee to study in detail about the evidences that Anjanadri Hills was the birthplace of Hanuman. The scholars committee comprised of Prof. Sannidhanam Sudarshana Sharma, vice-chancellor of Vedic Varsity, Prof. Muralidhara Sharma, Vice Chancellor of National Sanskrit Varsity, professors Ranisadasiva Murthy, Janumaddi Ramakrishna, Sankaranarayana, ISRO Scientist Murthi Remilla, Deputy Director of State Archaeology Vijay Kumar as members and Project Officer of Higher Vedic studies Dr A Vibhishana Sharma as Convenor.

They are entitled to weekly offs, but not holidays. They are eligible only for monetary benefits in the agreement, and cannot avail of any other benefits, clarified Hebbal.

"When we received the order, we started calling up retired employees, and three people have evinced interest in joining duty. They can operate the vehicles till the employees call off the protest," said Chitradurga DC Vijayakumar.

Telangana realtor hits the jackpot!

EXPRESS NEW SERVICE @ Jangaon

A Hyderabad-based realtor struck gold, quite literally, as he chanced upon a copper vessel with gold and silver ornaments buried in the ground at Pembarthy village in Jangaon district on Thursday. He was getting a piece of land dug up using earthmovers to develop open plots when he discovered the ornaments.

News of the treasure spread like wildfire in the village with many gathering to witness the spectacle. Some even performed pooja over the copper vessel. The villagers now want the Archeology Department to excavate the land, and build a temple using the money found in the vessel. Meanwhile, police and revenue officials visited the spot to inspect the treasure. A goldsmith was summoned to the site to check the authenticity of the ornaments. Turns out, they were all pure. In the copper vessel, they found earrings, pustelu, gundulu, naga padigelu, and tiny gold sticks. There were silver sticks or kadiyalu, chains and rings too. In all, the pot contained 187 g of gold and 1.727 kg of silver. The copper vessel itself weighed 1.2 kg. The artifacts have been moved to the District Collectorate.

NOT THE TIME FOR POLITICAL FACE-OFF OVER VACCINATION

When an amiable person like Union Health Minister Harsh Vardhan suddenly explodes like he did on Wednesday, one can't but sit up and take notice. The way he tore into Opposition-ruled states that are supporting the argument for opening up Covid vaccination to the entire adult population showed his urgency in tamping the demand down. He cited their slow vax rates to berate them though vaccine hesitancy is a global phenomenon. Also, without admitting to the opacity with which Covaxin was given emergency use authorisation even before phase 3 trial results were out, Vardhan lit into the Chhattisgarh government for disallowing the jab till the test outcome was published, accusing it of inciting vaccine hesitancy. The heavy artillery though was reserved for the Thackeray government in Maharashtra that is roiling under its biggest Covid wave. Vardhan called out its 'misgovernance' and hauled it over the coals for trying to shift goalposts by complaining of vaccine shortage to deflect blame of mismanagement and inducing panic. Criticising Maharashtra's healthcare system, he shared his frustration at the government's 'lackadaisical attitude' that had bogged down India's fight against Covid.

While the minister was emphatic in his denial of vaccine shortage, reports from states like Odisha where as many as 600 vaccination centres were dysfunctional on Wednesday due to stock depletion told a different story. He did admit that there were supply side challenges, which was why the rollout was staggered. The Centre had earlier donated or sold vaccines across the world, earning humanitarian and diplomatic plaudits, but held back exports since mid-March to meet the domestic demand. As a result, Covishield manufacturer Serum Institute of India is in a legal pickle for not honouring its export obligations. The demand-supply mismatch is not going to ease anytime soon.

Going forward, vaccine manufacturers could perhaps be incentivised to scale up production by relaxing controls on the open market price. Also, this is not the time for petty fights. The virus can be defeated only if the healthcare systems are ramped up, vaccination scaled up and people understand the value of masking up at public places. There are no shortcuts.

CONTAINING IMPACT ON EDUCATION

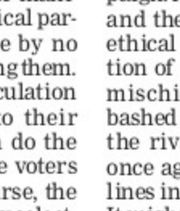
In 2020, the education sector in India took a big beating due to Covid and impacted the progress made so far in ensuring universal literacy. Even a developed state such as Tamil Nadu felt the impact of classes going online. Now, just as that academic year is ending and the next is set to begin, the country is witnessing a second wave, with case numbers spiking across states.

As per UNICEF estimates, over 25 crore Indian children have been negatively impacted by the closure of schools. A UNESCO report finds that the pandemic has further widened the existing inequity in the education sector across the world. The ramifications these developments could have on the Indian economy in the long run are of serious concern. As uncertainty looms over yet another academic year, policymakers must act fast to prevent loss of time and bridge learning gaps. To begin with, India had adopted a mix of TV, radio and online classes for students in the past year. However, a recent study by UNESCO terms these as "imperfect substitutes" for classroom learning. This is primarily because such media, except online classes, disallow interaction. According to a National Statistical Organisation study, until 2019, only 15% of homes in rural India had internet access. The penetration increased to 42% in urban areas. Though the figure is likely to have gone up in 2020 as the internet became an essential commodity, the reach is abysmally far from universal. In this context, it's important for policymakers to work towards drastically improving internet access.

Tamil Nadu, a state often accused of propagating the freebie culture, made remarkable progress by issuing 2 GB free data to all college students during exam time. If the right to free and compulsory education must be upheld, then policymakers must ensure free or subsidised access to the internet for students until the pandemic is contained. While online classes will not solve the problem at hand, they will ensure that learning continues. Investing in free internet for the poor is an economic necessity.

Democratic rituals have gradually lost their meaning in the Indian context. Manifestoes here satisfy the form without enriching the content of democracy

ALARMING NOTES FROM ELECTORAL BATTLEGROUND



K JAYAKUMAR

Former Kerala chief secretary and ex-VC, Thunchath Ezhuthachan Malayalam Varsity

AMIT BANDRE

To doubt the credentials of our democracy when the election process in Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Bengal, Assam and Puducherry are halfway through might sound impudent if not audacious. However, if we believe that democracy is only about elections and electoral majority, there is no room for concern as all the external coordinates of democracy are intact. The election machinery under the overall guidance and control of the Election Commission of India functions like a well-oiled machinery. There are observers to 'observe' if the code of conduct is being violated. Our Electronic Voting Machines (EVMs) are like Caesar's wife, beyond doubt and reproach. We can put the US to shame in our methodology mastery in holding elections and declaring results. That said, one has to hasten to add that all this is form and form alone does not create content. What our elections lack is content, the pith.

Like every ritual, democratic rituals too have gradually lost their meaning in the Indian context. One of the major election rituals is the publication of manifestoes by the major political parties. Political parties are by no means casual about drafting them. Considerable energy, calculation and imagination go into their drafting. But how much do the manifestoes influence the voters in their decision? Of course, the populist highlights or a few selected promises in every manifesto get some mileage during the campaign. However, the majority of the promises or assurances in the manifestoes are there for the sake of form. They have been incorporated with the intent of upstaging the rival parties. The philosophy or administrative and economic feasibility of the manifesto promises do not find adequate space in campaigning. The punch of every campaign is always on emotional issues. Once a new government comes to power, except for the highlighted items, the manifesto as a document fades into oblivion; or becomes a liability, as the impracticality of several promises begins to haunt the government like a dreaded ghost. As a result, the manifesto loses its value as a document of electoral promises, which the citizen can demand to fulfil. Manifestoes here satisfy the form without enriching the content of democracy.

The nature and quality of campaigning during an election relate to both form and content. The state Assemblies or even Parliament only reflect or replay what happens during an election campaign. Amidst the code of conduct and the restrictions against unethical campaigning, dissemination of false news and malicious mischievous content, and unabashed display of money to stifle the rival candidate/party have once again brought out the fault lines in our 'dance of democracy.' It might be too dreamy to imagine our candidates coming on a common forum to present their side of arguments on the real issues of a constituency (Arguably, no police clearance would be given for such a 'fantasy meeting' citing possible law and order problems during and after such an event).

The absence of debates is a major flaw in our democratic practice. Though every party may have its own stated stand on important issues, the voters in a constituency are entitled to test the relative comprehension, competence, clarity and personal values of their candidates. In developed democracies, these debates are not a luxury but an essential part of the process of selection. But here, even discussions organised on TV channels with the candidates or their party representatives are often acerbic duels where panelists vie with each other to make sure that the other person is not audible (Sometimes the anchor makes sure of this). Democracy is all about differences, dissent and divergence, and the patience to accept them. It is the art of being able to disagree with dignity. Neither in the TV shows nor in our election campaigns is this virtue emphasised or valued. The graph of our national ability to 'differ with dignity' has been coming down gradually with every succeeding election, to the extent that election campaigns and poll rhetoric of the sixties and seventies today appear alien and incredible.

The absence of debates is a major flaw. Though every party may have its own stated stand on important issues, the voters in a constituency are entitled to test the relative comprehension, competence, clarity and personal values of their candidates

It has been the practice in civilised societies to insist on customary salutations while participating in debates and discussions. In the British Parliament, the members, even when engaged in adversarial debates, invariably address each other as 'distinguished member', or 'honourable member'. In Indian law courts, it is always 'Your Lordship' (though this seems to have been pushed out), while addressing the judge and 'my learned friend' while addressing the lawyer on the other side. These honorifics lend some kind of restraint in the use of language and tone down the bitterness of arguments. The way our state legislatures and Parliament have been devaluing meaningful debates is a tragic sight, though it is only to be expected. The vitriolic nature of campaigning during elections seeps into the sacred spaces of the legislatures to manifest in unedifying scenes.

In this larger frame of things, national leaders have a responsibility to set the pitch and decorum quotient of their words and actions. Even if local leaders are drawn into the locally inflammable issues with emotional overtones, national leaders should have the required emotional distance and equipoise to view such topics in their real perspective and lift the quality of rhetoric by focusing on the larger problems of society and the country. Sadly enough, we have been witnessing national leaders dabbling in the local miasma with tutored content, while local leaders try to distort the national issues to ineptly interpret local ones. Electoral rivalry is natural but true leaders outgrow it soon after the battle. True leaders are often able to assuage the feelings on both sides and manage situations without allowing them to deteriorate into major incidents. During such time, the local political workers look towards their leaders for solutions. State-level leaders look towards national leaders for guidance and wisdom. But that kind of statesmanship has been starkly missing in this round of election campaign. Within the ritual of a democracy, several leaders have dragged the campaign to unacceptable levels of poor language with substandard canards, ridicule and insinuations. This alarming tendency can only drain higher values of sensitivity, civility and tolerance from the electoral battle scene. Who doesn't know that the tree of democracy will only wilt without these sources of nourishment?

CHINA PIQUED AS MORE ADOPT INDO-PACIFIC FRAMEWORK

SHANKARI SUNDARARAMAN

Professor at School of International Studies, JNU, New Delhi

ASIAN AXIS

Last month, the presence of nearly 200 Chinese vessels in the waters of the Philippines Exclusive Economic Zone sent an obvious signal to the regional states of the ASEAN. China was watching the emerging shifts in the Indo-Pacific and its response was to flex its muscles. Reacting to the Chinese presence in the EEZ, President Duterte was quick to ensure that the Philippines Air Force responded to the incursion immediately. Describing the intrusion into its EEZ as a "threatening" one, the Philippines deployed its light fighter aircraft to ensure that the presence of huge numbers of Chinese vessels did not go unresponded to. Understanding the duality of the Chinese position vis-a-vis the region of Southeast Asia is important; even as Beijing has contributed the maximum in terms of assistance during the pandemic, there has been increased incursions into the maritime spaces of other countries, pushing the boundaries of the bilateral ties with several of the claimant countries in the South China Sea dispute. The backdrop for this event is the emergence of two factors: first, the Biden administration has re-emphasised its Indo-Pacific policy, specifically with its treaty allies in Southeast Asia, of which the Philippines is critical. And the US has followed up with the Quad summit last month. Second, France and the UK are emerging as potential actors in the Indo-Pacific region, signalling the increasing approach to maintaining the regional and global normative order for the maritime domains.

The importance of the Indo-Pacific region for France is clearly indicated in the Ministry of Europe and Foreign Affairs website where it reiterates that its overseas territories in the Indo-Pacific are significant areas as they cover 93% of the country's EEZ. Moreover, there is increasing recognition that France must be involved at various stages with all the regional initiatives that are emerging in the Indo-Pacific—supporting aspects of the Chinese BRI and the multilateral and minilateral approaches emerging in the region. The second edition of the La Perouse naval exercise from April 5 to 7 was a first of its kind where the French navy will perform joint exercises with the members of the Quad—Australia, Japan, India and the US—in the waters of the Bay of Bengal to increase interoperability. This took place even as France, India and Australia have identified their priorities in maintaining the regional balance of power in the Indian Ocean with the reciprocal access agreement to each other's military facilities in the region. In the week following the La Perouse naval exercises, the trilateral dialogue between the three is scheduled to take place on 13 April 2021, which will look at strengthening the core issues of maritime security and areas of collaboration. In light of the increasing Sino-US strategic rivalry, there are multiple layers of arrangements evolving in the regional security framework where this minilateral arrangement is emerging as a key option for India.

The latest intrusions into the EEZ of the Philippines clearly indicate that Chinese revisionism is here to stay. ... The entry of more states into the Indo-Pacific dynamic puts the onus on maintaining the normative order upon several players

Earlier in March, the UK brought out its latest foreign policy paper that looks at an integrated approach for the nation to address issues of foreign, defence and security policy in the coming years. Even as the UK has exited the European Union, this policy paper is indicative of the shifts that are going to be relevant, highlighting the move away from a Euro-centric focus to one that is now transitioning with the realities of Brexit setting in. The report addresses the increasing "tilt" of the UK to a region that accounts for 17.5% of its global trade. While the report significantly identifies the areas of security issues that range from territorial disputes to nuclear challenges, it also highlights issues such as climate change. But the emphasis on freedom of navigation cannot be missed, even as the report reiterates the commitment to regional security arrangements like the Five Power Defence Arrangement (FPDA), as well as supporting and working with multilateral partners that are like-minded. The increased focus on the Indo-Pacific is also seeing the deployment of the HMS Queen Elizabeth where it will participate in joint exercises, indicating the commitment to safeguarding the freedom of passage in the Indo-Pacific waters. This increased focus of the UK is also likely to translate into a dialogue partnership with the ASEAN, particularly focused on the importance of the ADMM-Plus, a defence ministers meeting to address regional security issues. The forthcoming visit of Prime Minister Boris Johnson to India later this month is also focused on exploring the strategic areas of furthering cooperation in the Indo-Pacific.

Even as more states are entering into the fray in what is being seen as the normative battle for the maritime zones and the safeguarding of the sea lines of communication, China's assertions in these very waters is clearly sending the signal that it has scant regard for the existing rule of law. The latest intrusions into the EEZ of the Philippines clearly indicate Chinese revisionism is here to stay and will likely pressure smaller states in the region into accepting the regional status quo that will be driven by China. However, the entry of more states into the Indo-Pacific dynamic puts the onus on maintaining the normative order upon several players, making the regional landscape more dependent on a multipolar approach.

Middle class apathy

This is with reference to Should voting be made mandatory in India? (Apr 8). The political class has to share the major blame for voters' apathy. But the middle class, who enjoy the fruits of democracy, too fail to elect the government they want, yet complain.

Poor turnout in Chennai

It is disconcerting to hear that Chennai continued to have the lowest voting percentage. Lack of parking facilities when casting votes in congested areas was one of the important barriers.

Appeal based on religion

The EC rightly issued a notice to West Bengal CM Mamata Baneerjee for appealing to Muslims in the state not to divide their votes. This appears to be a flagrant violation of the Model Code of Conduct. It is time that pseudo-secularists like her were reined in.

Plight of polling staff

I was reminded of my plight 20 years ago as a presiding officer in a remote village while reading about the struggle faced by polling staff in Thursday's newspaper. The evening of the day before polls, some locals requested access inside the polling booths. When I firmly said no, they disappeared and we couldn't even get water, food or tea. Fortunately I had the phone number of a student in a nearby town, who brought food and water to us. The building was in a miserable condition. The staff on election duty, especially women, are not provided even night accommodation.

Non-BJP states seek more vaccines, call for additional help from Centre

GST relief on medical items, more oxygen supply, greater vaccine coverage among demands

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

THE opposition-ruled states asked PM Narendra Modi to review the vaccination strategy and sought more cooperation from the Centre in fighting the pandemic, while the BJP-ruled states apprised him of the steps taken to tame the second wave.

Maharashtra CM Uddhav Thackeray said while the state will not lag behind in the fight against Covid-19, the Centre should extend all possible help. He appealed that there shouldn't be any politics over the pandemic. The statement came amid a slanging match between his government and the Centre over vaccine shortage in the state.

"The Centre should provide adequate number of vaccines to us. There are only nine lakh vaccines left while the Centre has assured to supply more than 17.43 lakh after April 15. The delay will disturb the vaccination chain in the state," Thackeray said. He said the state aims to vaccinate about 1.77 crore people in the priority group and for this 40 lakh doses should be supplied every week.

Thackeray also demanded oxygen supply. "The state is in dire need of oxygen...we need around 1,700-2,500 MT oxygen by the end of April. We need liquid medical oxygen urgently," he said. He also sought increased Remdesivir supply, saying the demand could go up from the current 50,000-60,000 vials per day to 90,000 by April-end. Thackeray also asked 1200 ventilators from the Centre.

Calling for tweaking the vaccination policy, Punjab CM Amarinder Singh demanded that all adults in high-risk areas should be allowed to be immunized, along with patients with liver and kidney disease below the age of 45. He also requested the Union health ministry to share the schedule for vaccine supply with the states.

The CM of another Congress-ruled state, Bhupesh Baghel, also sought increase in vaccine supply and GST relief on medical equipment/medicines used for Covid-19 treatment. "The Centre should provide assistance to the state for setting-up a 1,000-bed ICU hospital", the Chhattisgarh chief minister demanded.

Madhya Pradesh CM Shivraj Singh Chouhan apprised the PM about the measures being initiated to address the rise in Covid-19 cases in the state, including the lockdown measures, augmenting bed capacity, vaccination and on ensuring oxygen and Remdesivir supply.

His Uttar Pradesh counterpart Yogi Adityanath said the state had sufficient number of beds and also assured of ramping up tests. Uttarakhand Chief Minister T S Rawat, too, apprised the PM of the strict containment measures being taken and the vaccination drive.

Modi takes second jab of Covaxin

New Delhi: Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday received the second dose of Covid vaccine at the AIIMS, giving a message to the people that "vaccination is among the few ways we have, to defeat the virus". He also advised the citizens through a Twitter message: "If you are eligible for the vaccine, get your shot soon. Register on CoWin.gov.in."

Stocks thinning in most states, replenishment must

THERE are over 4,000 vaccinations centres in Maharashtra. "We are speedily running out of stock. Because of rising Covid-19 cases, people who were earlier reluctant are now rushing to take the jabs," said state health minister Rajesh Tope.

In Mumbai, 27 out of 76 vaccinations centre were closed down on Thursday. Similarly, Rajasthan is left with only three days' reserves, unless the current stock is replenished.

Odisha has only 1 lakh doses of Covaxin and 2.5 lakh doses of Covishield in hand.

Andhra Pradesh is racing against time as it has only 3 lakh vaccine doses, while the state administers 1.4 lakh dosages per day. It has written to the Centre for more vaccines and expects around 10 lakh dosages in the next two weeks. Telangana has 2.25-2.5 lakh doses of Covaxin and 10 lakh doses of Covishield.

Officially, there is no shortage in Karnataka but some private hospitals claim they are receiving only half of the required quantity. The state has 14 lakh vaccine doses, which will suffice till April 20.

In Kerala, Covaxin is available only in limited centres. The current stock of less than 12 lakh could last for 10-12 days. Tamil Nadu has 19 lakh doses, which will last for 10 days according to Dr T S Selvavinayagam, director of public health.

PM calls for unity in tackling Covid

"LAST year we succeeded in coming off from the peak of the Covid-19 cases without vaccines by banking on proactive testing and treatment of the patients, besides larger people's participation in following the protocol of wearing masks and personal hygiene. Now, some of the states seem to have forgotten testing as a means of containing the pandemic and are only talking about vaccines," he observed.

Modi also called for political unity in tackling the pandemic by suggesting that Governors in states can call all-party meetings to arrive at actionable agendas to work on. He also urged states to host a Tika Utsav (vaccine festival) during April 11-14 to coincide with the birth anniversaries of Jyotiba Phule and Bhim Rao Ambedkar.

Panel for strict action on officers not filing returns

KUMAR VIKRAM @ New Delhi

A Parliamentary standing committee has called for stringent measures other than denial of vigilance clearance against those officers who have failed to submit their annual immovable property return within the scheduled time.

It has also recommended the DoPT and the CVC to increase surveillance on such officials.

As many as 349 IAS officers have not submitted their annual immovable property returns for the year 2020 in the stipulated time limit.

As per All India Services (Conduct) Rule, 1968, every service member is required to submit an annual return in such form as may be prescribed by the Government in this regard, giving full particulars regarding of their immovable property.

The panel said a list of the 349 IAS officers who have not submitted their IPRs was shared with DoPT for action to be taken as per the AIS (Conduct) Rules.

It noted with concern that the 349 IAS officers have not submitted their returns in the stipulated time limit. During the examination of Demands for Grants (2020-21), the Committee was informed that 338 IAS officers had not filed Immovable Property Returns for 2019. "This makes a case for institution of stringent measures other than denial of vigilance clearance against erring officers," it said.

UP court orders ASI to survey Kashi Vishwanath-Gyanvapi mosque complex

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

A civil court in Varanasi on Thursday allowed an Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) study at the Gyanvapi Mosque adjacent to the Kashi Vishwanath Temple.

The court ordered the ASI to form a five-member expert panel, comprising two minority representatives, with the prime focus on finding whether there was a "superimposition, alteration or addition or structural overlapping with/over any other religious structure" at the site.

The order was passed on a plea filed by advocate Vishnu Shankar Rastogi, who claimed the mosque stands at the site of an ancient Hindu temple pulled down by Mughal emperor Aurangzeb, who built the Gyanvyapi Mosque there in 1664.

The claim was contested by the management committee of the mosque, Anjuman Intezamia Masjid, which said a civil court was barred from adjudicating on the dispute under the Places of Worship (Special Provision) Act, 1991, read with Section-9 of the IPC.

However, the Anjuman's contention that revenue records showed the presence of a mosque on the site was dismissed by the court.

Rastogi's petition on behalf of the Swayambhu Jyotirlinga Bhagwan Vishweshwar also wanted the court to allow Hindus to reconstruct the temple on the land.

While directing the ASI to carry out the survey, the court barred the prospective members from briefing media on the findings and insisted that alternative arrangements be made for Muslims to offer Namaz during the period of study

The Allahabad High Court is also seized of a related matter, wherein it has yet to decide the maintainability of a suit filed by the Kashi Vishwanath Temple Trust in 1991 for restoration of the land to Hindus.

Hours after the court ruling, Sunni Central Waqf Board said the order will be challenged in the high court.

Pendency: SC for paving rules for ad hoc judges

NEW DELHI: THE Supreme Court on Thursday said it was intending to lay down guidelines for the appointment of ad-hoc judges in the High Courts to tackle the problem of mounting case arrears.

A bench headed by CJI S A Bobde was informed that many high courts have supported the proposition to appoint ad hoc judges to overcome vacancy crisis. The submission was made in view of the inordinate delay by the Centre in forwarding proposals to the SC collegium for scrutiny.

The Madras, Calcutta and Karnataka HCs said there is no need for ad hoc judges right now.

However, counsel for MP, Madras and Kerala said if the recommendation made by the HC chief justice for an ad hoc judge is sent to the government and the latter takes its own time to clear, the purpose to have ad hoc judges will be frustrated. Such proposals should be referred to the President directly, they said.

Though Centre did not oppose the idea, but cautioned that recommendation for ad hoc judges should not be done in lieu of making regular appointments.

Additional Solicitor General RS Suri emphasised that the due process must be followed to appoint ad hoc judges, which would require both the collegium and Centre to be in the loop. The bench asked the lawyers for all high courts to hold deliberations and chalk out a common protocol to appoint ad hoc judges. ENS

Three women candidates in this constituency

Kolkata: Ratna Chatterjee, TMC candidate from Behala Purba constituency, is fighting her first election. She is in middle of a bitter separation from her husband Sovan Chatterjee, former mayor of Kolkata and sitting MLA from the seat who joined BJP in late 2019. He wanted to contest this time too, but BJP chose to field actor Payel Sarkar instead. The CPI(M) has also fielded a woman candidate in Samita Har Chowdhury. This makes it a fight between three women. In 2016, TMC had won the seat with 47% votes, while a Left-supported Independent candidate got 36%. In 2019 LS polls, BJP vote rose to 35.63%, while TMC bagged 43.32%.

PRANAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

WITH 48 hours to go for the fourth phase of polls in West Bengal, BJP's Bengal chapter organised a high-decibel campaign in Alipurduar on Thursday featuring its national president JP Nadda. The procession, decorated with balloons, placards, flags, travelled through the heart of the city.

Alipurduar, comprising five Assembly constituencies, is one of the two districts in north Bengal where first phase of polls will be held on Saturday.

Urging the crowd to shout Jai Shri Ram, Nadda gave a call to wipe out Trinamool Congress from north Bengal. "We performed impressively in north Bengal in the 2019 Lok Sabha elections because of your overwhelming support. This is the time to complete the work, which is uprooting the TMC from north Bengal. This will begin from the Alipurduar district," Nadda said.

In the 2019 general elections, BJP bagged seven Lok Sabha seats out of eight in north Bengal, forcing TMC to return empty handed. Congress had won the Malda (south) seat.

Thousands joined the roadshow and they came from Alipurduar's adjoining areas including Banerhat, Cooch Behar. Sources in the BJP said that the party high command is treating the districts of Cooch Behar and Alipurduar as priority because they are adjacent to Assam. "Names of many relatives of the electorates living in these two districts were left out of the final NRC list in Assam two years ago. Our leadership wants to ensure that there will be no adverse impact of it among those electorates in Cooch Behar and Alipurduar," said a senior BJP leader.

Eyeing a massive victory in the northern part of the state again, Nadda said: "The people of north Bengal have been deprived of all benefits and the Bengal chief minister has been sitting idle during the 10 years of her tenure. Voters of this region can bring a change in Bengal's seat of power. North Bengal is going to play a crucial role in derailing Mamata Banerjee's government and replace it with the BJP."

Among the 54 Assembly constituencies in north Bengal, the BJP secured lead in 35 seats in the 2019 Lok Sabha elections.

Mithun roadshow denied permission

Kolkata: The BJP was denied permission to hold a roadshow featuring actor Mithun Chakraborty, who recently joined the saffron camp, in Kolkata's Behala area on Thursday. In protest, party workers held a demonstration in front of a police station. The agitation was led by actor-turned-BJP candidate Srabanti Chatterjee.

Despite EC notice, Mamata says her stand won't change

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Kolkata

MAMATA Banerjee has replied to the Election Commission's notice the way she can.

Asked to show cause for violating the model code of conduct by allegedly asking the Muslim community to vote en bloc for TMC in the Assembly elections, the West Bengal chief minister said the EC can serve as many notices it wants. She will continue to raise her voice against any attempt to divide voters on communal lines.

The TMC supremo, during her campaign in the Domjur Assembly seat, also sought to know why no complaint has been registered against Prime Minister Narendra Modi, alleging that he often makes references to Hindu and Muslim votebanks in his speeches.

"You (EC) can issue 10 show-cause notices to me but my reply will be the same. I will always speak against any division in Hindu, Muslim votes. I will always stand against division of voters along religious lines.

"Why has no complaint been filed against Narendra Modi, who every day talks about Hindu and Muslim (votebanks)? How many complaints have been lodged against those who had uttered the word 'mini Pakistan' during the Nandigram campaigns?" Mamata said.

Blaming BJP for "spreading lies" about Section 144 in an entire constituency, Mamata said: "They (BJP) spreads lies to create panic. In reality, Section 144 is in force within 200 metres of a booth. But they are doing this to prevent our voters from going to polling stations." She asked polling agents to protest against "misdeeds" by BJP.

SC dismisses Maha & Deshmukh pleas against CBI probe

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday dismissed a plea filed by former Maharashtra Home Minister Anil Deshmukh and the Maharashtra government, challenging the Bombay High Court order allowing a preliminary CBI probe against him.

A bench headed by Justice Sanjay Kishan Kaul said: "What has been directed by the high court is a preliminary inquiry, and we are not inclined to interfere. It is only preliminary inquiry, nothing is wrong in it when serious allegations are made by a senior officer against a senior minister."

Arguing on behalf of Deshmukh, advocate Kapil Sibal said: "There have been cases where there were diary entries kept by business houses about senior officers and this court denied inquiry saying there is no actionable evidence. This court has said that a high court cannot direct investigation on the basis of anonymous complaints or vague allegations."

He argued that Deshmukh and former Mumbai Police Commissioner Param Bir Singh did not speak with each other about the alleged crime and Singh has said he heard the allegations from someone else. "When there is only hearsay, how can there be an investigation?" Sibal asked.

Deshmukh resigned as Maharashtra's home minister on Monday after the HC directed CBI to conduct a preliminary inquiry within 15 days into the allegations levelled against him by Singh.

Looking at the personas involved and the seriousness of allegations, an independent inquiry is called for. You can't say it affects the federal structure. This does not happen everyday.

Justice S K Kaul

Appearing for the Maharashtra government, advocate Abhishek Manu Singhvi pointed out that the high court had failed to address the question of maintainability of the petitions before it. At this, Justice Kaul said: "All these problems are arising because of the fallout that has happened. Allegations are extremely serious and it becomes curious and curious. In this scenario is it not a CBI probe case?"

On March 25, Singh had filed a criminal PIL seeking a CBI probe against Deshmukh who, he claimed, had asked police officers, to extort ₹100 crore from bars and restaurants.

'Follow norms to deport Rohingyas'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday rejected a plea that had sought the release of at least 150 Rohingya refugees detained in a Jammu sub-jail and the stalling of deportation.

A bench headed by Chief Justice of India S A Bobde said that the deportation of Rohingya refugees must follow due procedure, which involved their proper identification and acknowledgment of their citizenship by the Myanmar. "No Rohingya from Jammu will be deported without the procedure to be followed in such cases," said the bench.

The Centre had earlier opposed the plea and emphasised that India cannot become "the international capital of illegal immigrants". Appearing for the Centre, Solicitor General Tushar Mehta on March 26 submitted that a similar application to stop the deportation of Rohingyas from Assam was dismissed by the top court in 2018. He added the Centre has begun the process of deporting Rohingyas after receiving a confirmation from the Myanmar government regarding their nationality, and that the apex court should steer clear of the issue since it fell within the exclusive domain of the executive.

Petitioner Salimullah's lawyer Prashant Bhushan cited the 2020 order of the ICJ that spoke of the persecution faced by Rohingyas in Myanmar.

"National courts can draw inspiration from international conventions/treaties, so long as they are not in conflict with the municipal law. Regarding the contention raised on behalf of the petitioners about the present state of affairs in Myanmar, we can't comment on something in another country," the bench said.

Kishor and team likely to camp in Punjab from May for polls next year

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

ALMOST a year ahead of the assembly polls in Punjab, election strategist Prashant Kishor, who was appointed principal advisor to CM Amarinder Singh, is likely to stay in the state from May with his team.

Kishor and his team will take feedback from the general public about the performance of the government and is likely to prepare a report card of the last five years of the ruling party MLAs.

Sources said a few days ago, Kishor met first-time MLAs of the ruling Congress and also senior party legislators. They reportedly told him that the bureaucracy was running the government.

Kishor has reportedly started taking feedback from district-level officers with whom the people are dissatisfied. It is believed that the poll strategist would like former cabinet minister Navjot Singh Sidhu to play a vital role. Sidhu has been out of the picture for some time now. He recently met Amarinder at his farm house over tea, said sources.

Sources said Amarinder has deputed his political secretary Sandeep Singh Sandhu and his grandson Nirvan Singh to coordinate with Kishor, who lives in the bungalow next to the Chief Minister's residence. An IAS officer has also been told to coordinate with the poll strategist.

Sources said Kishor's team is likely to be bigger than the 2017 team, in which about 250 persons worked for him.

IN May last year, Maoists had abducted police constable Santosh Kattam of Bijapur and held him hostage for nearly a week before local journalists convinced them to hand him over. The role of Bastar's journalists in the safe return of the CRPF personnel was acknowledged by Inspector General (Bastar Range) P Sundarraj, who thanked Ganesh Mishra, Mukesh Chandrakar, Raja Rathour, Shankar and others for their timely updates.

A CRPF official said though Manhas did not have any 'apparent injury' and suffered only from dehydration, he would undergo health checkups at Basaguda field hospital. Meanwhile, Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel congratulated the team that brought Manhas back. Union Home minister Amit Shah also spoke to Manhas over phone.

Padma Shri awardee Dharampal Saini (87), who was one of the mediators, said the unharmed jawan had shown signs of stress. The mediators arrived at Bijapur on Wednesday night and left for Pamed on Thursday. A video clipping of the handing over showed Maoists untying the jawan's hands in the presence of locals. He was given food, medicine and was not harmed throughout the five days, the mediators said. The Maoists later appealed to the media to display the same alacrity they showed in this case when locals were detained by the police.

Attached to the 210 CoBRA battalion, Manhas had gone missing after the April 5 ambush that killed 22 troopers.

Forest fire threat to flora, fauna in tiger reserve

With the onset of summer season, forest officials in Palamu Tiger Reserve (PTR) are finding it difficult to deal with forest fires caused deliberately by local villagers for 'mahua' collection and poaching of animals. According to PTR Director YK Das, more incidents of fire were reported this time as locals have started adopting the easier way of setting dry leaves on fire to locate 'mahua' flowers on the ground. Though the fire is done in a limited way, but most of the times it gets uncontrolled and spreads to a larger area due to dry weather conditions, the official added.

Myanmar envoy locked out of UK embassy

11 more protesters killed in clashes; US imposes sanctions on junta-owned Myanmar Gems Enterprise

LONDON/YANGON

MYANMAR'S ambassador to the United Kingdom, who has criticised the military coup in his country, says he has been locked out of his London office by colleagues. Kyaw Zwar Minn said he was barred from entering the embassy on Wednesday evening by diplomats loyal to the military regime.

Last month, the ambassador called for the release of Myanmar's democratic leader, Aung San Suu Kyi, who was detained when the military seized power on February 1. Since the coup, Myanmar security forces have killed at least 581 protesters and bystanders in their crackdown on opposition. A statement read on Kyaw Zwar Minn's behalf outside the embassy on Thursday said the embassy had been "seized by the military attache yesterday evening. The ambassador has been locked out since then."

"There has been a coup in Myanmar in February and now the same situation in central London," the statement said. "This is unacceptable and disrespectful not only to the people of Myanmar but it is also clearly disrespectful to all of democratic society in the UK"

British Foreign Secretary Dominic Raab condemned the "bullying actions of the Myanmar military regime," and praised the ambassador's "courage."

But it was unclear what, if anything, the UK could do about the move. The British government said it had been notified by Myanmar authorities that Kyaw Zwar Minn had been removed from his post.

Meanwhile, at least 11 people were shot dead as the security forces opened fire on protesters in Myanmar's northwestern town of Taze, Reuters reported. Residents of the town had resisted the junta with homemade weapons.

A crackdown in neighbouring town of Kale on Wednesday, which also saw protesters use improvised weapons, killed at least 11 people.

The United States on Thursday slapped sanctions on Myanmar's state gem company, Myanmar Gems Enterprise, vowing to deprive the military junta of a key moneymaker as it suppresses protests. Agencies

LANKAN MRS WORLD ARRESTED OVER CROWN SNATCHING

COLOMBO

COLOMBO police on Thursday arrested the reigning "Mrs World" on charges of assault over an on-stage fracas in which she pulled the crown off the head of the new "Mrs Sri Lanka" on Wednesday.

Caroline Jurie yanked the crown off Pushpika de Silva minutes after she was declared "Mrs Sri Lanka 2020" in a Sunday gala at Colombo's Nelum Pokuna theatre.

Towards the end of Sunday's ceremony, Jurie had claimed that de Silva was divorced and therefore ineligible for the prize. Her surprise announcement sparked unruly scenes minutes after the chief guest, Prime Minister Mahinda Rajapaksa's wife Shiranthi, left the theatre.

To qualify for the title, contestants must be married. De Silva is estranged from her husband, but they are still legally married. De Silva needed hospital treatment after the incident, seen by stunned spectators in a packed venue as well as a live social media audience. "We have arrested Jurie and (her associate) Chula Manamendra in connection with a charge of assault and causing damage to Nelum Pokuna (theatre)," a police official said.

De Silva told reporters outside a police station in Colombo Thursday that she was ready to drop the charges if Jurie made a public apology, but she had refused. AFP

Headache for US: Taliban strike covert Afghan base

WASHINGTON

THE Taliban carried out two high-profile attacks targeting heavily armed covert US bases in Afghanistan last month, CNN reported on Thursday citing official sources.

According to the network, missiles landed near the Forward Operating Base Chapman, which is a classified US military installation in eastern Afghanistan, wounding seven people. A water tank was damaged in a subsequent attack, which saw a few missiles land inside the US base. There were no reports of any causality.

The attacks come weeks before the May 1 deadline for the US to pull its troops out of Afghanistan and have fuelled concerns that the insurgents would step up such attacks, if the US stays in the country beyond May 1.

Orderly withdrawals take time, and Biden is running out of it. The US president has inched so close to the deadline that his indecision amounts almost to a decision to put off, at least for a number of months, a pullout of the remaining 2,500 troops and continue supporting the Afghan military at the risk of a Taliban backlash.

Removing all of the troops and their equipment in the next three weeks along with coalition partners would be difficult logistically, as Biden himself suggested in late March. Agencies

Retail two-wheeler sales crash after Covid surge

Overall retail auto demand in March falls by a cumulative 28.64%

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

OWING to the economic impact of the resurgent Covid-19 pandemic and rising fuel prices, retail two-wheeler sales fell by a whopping 35.26 per cent in March 2021 to 11,95,445 units as against 18,46,613 units sold in the same month last year, said the Federation of Automobile Dealers Associations (FADA) on Thursday.

On the contrary, two-wheeler manufacturers had reported a high double-digit growth in factory dispatches for the month earlier. For example, Hero MotorCorp reported a 72 per cent rise in domestic wholesales in March 2021 while FADA's data said that Hero's retail sales fell by nearly 50 per cent year-on-year in March 2021.

"According to Pew Research, financial woes brought by Covid-19 have pushed about 32 million Indians out of the middle class, undoing years of economic gains. This had its impact on 2-wheelers as it saw one of its steepest de-growth in the last few months. This, coupled with high fuel prices and price increase, acted as a double whammy. It not only created havoc in the entry-level customers' minds, but also kept them away from visiting showrooms," FADA President Vinkesh Gulati said.

Going forward, two-wheeler sales may face more challenges if the second wave of the pandemic continues. Lockdown-like restrictions implemented by states, especially Maharashtra, may impact four-wheeler sales too. However, during March 2021, passenger vehicle sales grew by 28.39 per cent year-on-year to 2,79,745 units.

"Fear amongst consumers with the last year.. in mind has started keeping them away from making high ticket purchases. The effects of the same can be seen in the two-wheeler category where inquiry levels are low. This, coupled with the semiconductor shortage, will continue to hamper not only Passenger Vehicles but also two-wheelers as an ABS shortage is also currently ringing alarm bells," said the dealers' association.

Maharashtra contributes around 10-11 per cent of the retail auto sales and the current lockdown is going to have a catastrophic effect on overall sales in April in the state, it added. According to FADA, retail PV sales grew in March due to the low base of last year. The shortage of semiconductor wafers also continues to linger and has resulted in a PV waiting period of as high as seven months. Overall vehicle sales across all segments fell by a cumulative 28.64 per cent to about 16,49,678 units last month.

India Inc Q4 revenues to jump 15-17%

Expected growth in Q4FY21 EBITDA	Estimated overall revenue in Q4FY21	Estimated overall revenue in FY21

AFTER a long period of declining profits and muted revenue growth, corporate revenues in India are estimated to have grown in double-digits, according to a report released by Crisil Ratings on Thursday. The agency pegged overall revenues to have grown as much as 15-17 per cent in the March quarter of FY21.

The revival, while on a low base, is an indication of continued economic recovery and comes after eight quarters of either single-digit revenue growth, or a decline.

Crisil noted that with the visible recovery in the second half of fiscal 2020-21, India Inc's overall revenue for 2020-21 may be just half a percentage point lower than that of fiscal 2019-20.

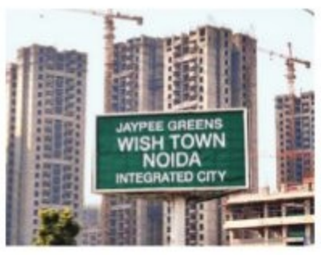
The agency also credited the low base of the previous year and better realisation due to higher commodity prices, for pushing up India Inc's operating profits by a much higher 28-30 per cent. Crisil's estimate is based on an analysis of 300 companies, which account for 55-60 per cent of total market capitalisation (excluding financial services and oil companies).

Earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation (EBIDTA), meanwhile, is estimated to have jumped 28-30 per cent during the quarter. Crisil added that its analysis indicates that 50 per cent of the recovery is accounted for by automobiles, IT services, and construction.

Mayur Patil, an associate director with the agency, explained that while demand recovery, higher realisations, and unprecedented fixed-cost cutting measures have enabled a healthy rise in operating margins for six straight quarters, currently rising commodity prices will lead to a decline in margins on a sequential basis. Despite this, fiscal 2021 is expected to record an overall EBITDA growth of 12-13 per cent year-on-year.

NBCC, Suraksha submit revised bids for bankrupt Jaypee Infratech

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi



IN a landmark case that involves 20,000 homebuyers awaiting the completion of their homes for over a decade, public sector enterprise NBCC and Mumbai-based Suraksha Group have submitted revised bids to acquire bankrupt real estate developer Jaypee Infratech, as per the directions of the Supreme Court.

"Pursuant to the directions of Hon'ble Supreme Court... the Interim Resolution Professional of JIL has invited fresh/modified Resolution Plan from NBCC. It is hereby informed that NBCC has submitted the freshmodified Resolution Plan for Jaypee Infratech Limited (JIL) on April 07, 2021," the state-owned firm said in a regulatory filing.

The revised bids by the two firms will be discussed by the Jaypee Infratech's Committee of Creditors (CoC) on April 12. According to sources, NBCC and Suraksha have both revised their bids in view of the apex court's direction to return ₹750 crore with accrued interest to Jaiprakash Associates Ltd (JAL), the promoter group of Jaypee Infratech, after reconciliation of accounts between JAL and JIL.

This will be the fourth round of the process. Last month, the Supreme Court had said that no new expression of interest will be entertained for taking over the firm and that only NBCC and Suraksha Realty may file revised proposals. The SC had also extended the resolution process by 45 days.

Jaypee Infratech began the insolvency process in August 2017 after the NCLT admitted an application by an IDBI Bank-led consortium. Homebuyers' claims amounting to ₹13,364 crore and lenders' claims worth ₹9,783 crore were admitted in due course.

In December 2019, the CoC, comprising 13 banks and around 21,000 homebuyers, approved the resolution plan of NBCC, but this was later challenged in the appellate tribunal NCLAT and later in the Supreme Court.

FinMin calls for vaccination of all bank staff on priority

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

FOLLOWING the detection of a high number of Covid cases among bankers, the Union finance ministry has requested that all banking staff be permitted to take the Covid-19 vaccine, irrespective of their age group, on a priority basis. In a letter to the ministries of home, and health and family welfare, the finance ministry urged that vaccination be provided to 'frontline' employees.

"They are on the frontline and deal with customers and critical infrastructure for seamless banking and payment system," the Department of Financial Services said in its letter. At present, Covid-19 vaccination is available for those above 45 years of age.

"Bank employees have played a critical role over the past year in ensuring that bank branches remain open and functional, and are providing the complete suite of banking services to their customers," the DFS added. The letter was also marked to the PMO

"We have got representations from various public sector banks since there is a surge in the number of cases among bankers. Even unions have flagged their concerns. We acknowledge that bank employees have worked through the Covid-19 pandemic and they must be vaccinated as early as possible," a senior official told this publication.

NBFCs under pressure as Covid cases rise, lockdowns return

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

INDIA'S non-bank financial institutions (NBFC) are likely to face renewed asset quality and liquidity risks in the face of a renewed surge in Covid-19 cases. This could act to delay recovery in the sector, noted Fitch Ratings on Thursday.

A key Covid hotspot is Maharashtra, which contributes 13-14 per cent to the national GDP, while several other states—Gujarat, Punjab, Delhi, and Chhattisgarh, which together account for about 16 per cent of national GDP—have also implemented additional restrictions including night curfews and capacity limits.

The agency noted that economic challenges are likely to increase if recent restrictions to contain the pandemic are expanded or prolonged, leading to greater economic and operational disruption.

"The economic impact of these curbs will depend on their duration and severity. Expanded curbs could derail the fragile recovery in India's NBFI sector," Fitch added.

The agency added that a resurgence in asset-quality pressure for NBFIs could lead to renewed funding strains for the sector, particularly since many government schemes that provided funding relief to NBFIs in 2020 have expired. These include the Partial Credit Guarantee scheme supporting asset-backed securitisation and the Special Liquidity Scheme providing government-guaranteed short-term funding relief.

Fitch had revised India's economic growth forecast for the fiscal year ending March 2022 (FY22) to 12.8 per cent in March 2021, from 11 per cent in the previous forecast in December.

NCLAT relief for OYO: Order to form CoC stayed

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Chennai

THE National Company Law Appellate Tribunal (NCLAT) granted some relief to hospitality major OYO on Thursday by staying an earlier NCLT order that had admitted the company to the insolvency process and ordered the formation of a Committee of Creditors (CoC). OYO has been dragged to the bankruptcy courts by a supplier over a disputed payment of ₹16 lakh.

On Thursday, OYO said in a statement that the appellate tribunal (NCLAT) has ordered a stay on the formation of the CoC. "Today NCLAT has admitted our plea and ordered a stay for the formation of COC in IBC proceedings against OHHPL, an OYO subsidiary. The claimant has already drawn the ₹16 lakh which we paid under protest," OYO said in a tweet.

OYO founder and group CEO Ritesh Agarwal also tweeted expressing thanks for the support the firm received on social media after errorneous reports stated that OYO had filed for insolvency. "Thank you for discouraging misleading news and forwarded msgs," he tweeted.

According to the insolvency and bankruptcy law, any creditor can take a company to insolvency court over unpaid dues. Once a petition is admitted by the NCLT, a resolution professional is appointed to examine creditors' claims and supervise the sale of the company to help settle them.

French Open postponed by a week

For the second year in a row, the traditional French Open schedule is being disrupted by the coronavirus pandemic. The clay-court Grand Slam tennis tournament said Thursday it will push back the start of this season's event by one week because of surging virus cases in France.

CAUTIOUS APPROACH TO TOUGH HOMEWORK

On the eve of an IPL lacking in buzz, BCCI's decision to bring the tournament back home and host it amid a second wave is inviting questions

VENKATA KRISHNA B @Chennai

ON the eve of a new IPL season, the second in five months, the usual buzz one associates with the tournament is missing. The lead up to the event is usually filled with promotional events, franchises offering players and support staff for interactions with media. But with India currently in the grip of a second Covid-19 wave, questions are being raised. Is bringing the tournament back home a safe option? Will it go ahead without a pause?

Towards the business end of the previous IPL, the IPL Governing Council led by Brijesh Patel was keen on keeping the 2021 edition in the Gulf. In fact, they even signed an MoU with the Emirates Cricket Board that would allow them to use the venues there. It was even discussed as recently as January, but in the end the BCCI decided to bring the tournament back home as Covid-19 numbers under control.

That proved to be a false dawn. The magnitude of the challenge that lies ahead of the BCCI to ensure a safe tournament is enormous. Particularly after the virus breached Mumbai Indians' bio-secure bubble. There is relief that none of Kiran More's contacts tested positive and after two days of isolation, they had a practice session ahead of the opening match against Royal Challengers Bangalore. On Friday, the sides will kickstart the 14th campaign behind closed doors at the MA Chidambaram Stadium.

In terms of an opener, it can't get bigger. Rohit Sharma, Trent Boult, Jasprit Bumrah, Virat Kohli, AB de Villiers, Glenn Maxwell... it is these match ups that make the IPL the spectacle it is. Instead, the entire atmosphere is rather subdued with franchises holding their breath, looking to survive each day without any positive cases in the camp. It is a tough environment to play sport, particularly when a majority of them have been living their lives in bubbles without any outside contact to the world, seeing the same faces and away from the families. Franchises are doing their best by creating team rooms for leisure activities to get rid of bubble fatigue. They believe closeness in the group can keep the morale up. But unlike the previous edition, this is coming at the fag end of the season. That three Australian players pulled-out of the IPL citing bubble life is an indication of how hard it is for those who are playing this tournament. And playing at home means players don't get to do lot of things that they got to do in the UAE.

Mumbai Indians during a training session in Chennai on Thursday | MI

In Dubai and Abu Dhabi, franchises had booked hotels and resorts that had access to private beaches. In India, that is next to impossible. With Covid-19 numbers increasing at home, the decision to host the matches in six cities is under spotlight. Since the tournament will be played behind closed doors, restricting it to three venues would have suited everyone. When it was all but decided to bring the IPL to India, the option that was explored was to host the entire tournament in Mumbai and Pune. With the former having three stadiums and Pune two hours by road, creating a bubble would have been easier. Now, the franchises have had to set up multiple bubbles. There is also lot of travelling involved.

The BCCI is planning to request the Centre to create separate security checks for the franchises at the airport so that it can create a separate bubble all the way to the tarmac where charter flights are parked. But there is always an element of risk involved. That the BCCI has parted ways with Restrata that helped them with Covid-safe technologies which tracked everyone's movement in the bubble seems like complacency. By hosting it in six venues at home, the BCCI has chosen to be bold. But whether it is the wise one remains to be seen.

FIRST DAY, FIRST SHOW

Five-time champions Mumbai Indians and perennial under-performers Royal Challengers Bangalore will be in action on Friday...

RCB's death bowling

Without Chris Morris, this could become a running theme for Virat Kohli & Co. The bowlers they have at their disposal have gone for plenty at the death. Much will depend on the costly Kyle Jamieson, who has not been in good white-ball form. If he can be economical at the death, they might stand a good chance.

MI-ghty champions

The one consensus is that MI are the team to beat. They are the most complete side, with match-winners from No 1 to No 11. If they are there or thereabouts after the spin-friendly first leg in Chennai, expect them to be installed as sure-shot favourites.

No Iran visa, Tejinder goes back to base

INDRANEEL DAS @Chennai

IT was not what shot putter Tejinderpal Singh Toor was expecting when he left his training centre in Patiala in the morning on Thursday. He was in Delhi to board a flight to Iran on Friday to take part in an invitational event, but was denied visa because of the Covid situation.

Gaining experience at international competitions has been Tejinder's priority lately, and this was a setback for the man from Punjab. "I couldn't get the visa because of the prevailing situation," he told this newspaper. "It can't be helped. I was looking forward to this because international competitions help to improve our performance." However, Tejinder was not worried. "I will go back and concentrate on my training," he said.

Wind in their sails: Friends set for Olympics

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @Chennai

NETHRA Kumanan, Varun Thakkar and KC Ganapathy would fiddle with their boats and race each other in make-believe Olympics more than a decade ago in Chennai. They would all take turns at winning, share a laugh and repeat the process.

A couple of years later, Vishnu Saravanan, originally from Vellore but in Mumbai now, joined the group. They would catch up during nationals. They would interact with each other during exposure trips and competitions in Europe.

On Thursday, all of them created history. Within an hour, they booked Olympic slots via merit, the first for the country in sailing, at the Asian qualifier in Oman. "What more can you ask for?" says Ganapathy. "All of us friends, we used to train in Chennai, know each other so well... now going together to the Olympics."

What these four have done is perhaps one of the country's best achievements in water sports. Here's a stat: since the turn of the century, there have been about 1,80,000 hours. In all that time, India managed to get just three sailors to go to the Olympics.

Varun Thakkar, Nethra Kumanan, KC Ganapathy and Vishnu Saravanan have qualified for Tokyo Olympics

At the Millenium Resort on Thursday, Nethra, who will become the first Indian woman sailor to take part in the Olympics, confirmed her place in the Laser Radial Class. While that was academic (her lead was so vast she just had to have an incident free day), what made it doubly sweet was the pair of Ganapathy (captain) and Varun (crew) in the 49er Class and Vishnu Saravanan in the Laser Standard Class also going through.

Coach Tomasz Januszewski, who was with the team in Oman, called it a 'fantastic moment'. "After years of development, hard work, sailors, coaches and commitment of parents, we have witnessed this great result," he told this daily. Januszewski hopes the four Indians will kick-start a 'new sailing era in Indian history'.

In Tokyo, this will easily be the youngest among all disciplines from an Indian perspective: Nethra is 23, Varun is 25, Ganapathy is 24 and Vishnu is just out of his teens.

What made this qualifying special is the challenges they had to face last year. Their equipment was locked out in Abu Dhabi for well over a year, with the team having to make do with hired equipment. For example, with beaches out of bounds, Ganapathy was reduced to visualising exercises in Chennai for a majority of 2020. When Varun and he went off to Ramaeswaram in the southern most tip of India to train in the second part of the year, a bike accident almost ended Ganapathy's chances of competing.

"I had a hairline fracture on the foot and suffered bad soft tissue damage. I just have to thank my doctors," remembers Ganapathy, who won an Asiad medal with Ashok in 2018.

Even as Ganapathy is reminiscing about the accident, the others gently pull his leg. But the respect his teammates have for him is evident. "When I got into the sailing for the first time, I kind of looked up to him," says Vishnu. "I don't know what to say today... just happy I guess."

More than a decade ago, they were happy to engage in backyard Olympic races on the water in Chennai. In July, they will get to taste the real thing.

Govts give varying advice on Astra jab

MEDICINE

THE HAGUE: In Spain, residents now have to be over 60 to get an AstraZeneca coronavirus vaccine. In Belgium, over 55. In the UK, authorities recommend the shot not be given to adults under 30 where possible, and Australia's government announced similar limits Thursday to AstraZeneca shots for those under 50.

A patchwork of advice was emerging from governments across Europe and farther afield, a day after the European Union's drug regulator said there was a "possible link" between the AstraZeneca vaccine and a rare clotting disorder while reiterating the vaccine is safe and effective.

Regulators in the UK and the EU both stressed that the benefits of receiving the vaccine continue to outweigh the risks for most people, and the EU agency maintained its guidance that the vaccine can be used in all adults. But experts fear the confusing messages about the vaccine could still dampen enthusiasm.

"The risks appear to be extremely low from this very rare side effect," Anthony R. Cox, of the University of Birmingham's School of Pharmacy, told the BBC. "I mean it's the equivalent of the risk of dying in the bath, drowning in the bath, for example, it's that rare, or a plane landing on your house."

Philippines and Italy have also restricted the use of the vaccine, which is distributed as Covishield in India.

Vaccinating kids mandatory, European rights court rules

The European Court of Human Rights ruled on Thursday that obligatory vaccinations can be seen as necessary in democratic societies, in a landmark judgement after a complaint brought by Czech families over compulsory jabs for children.

This is the first time that the ECHR has delivered a judgement about compulsory vaccination against childhood diseases. Experts say it could have implications for any policy of compulsory vaccinations against Covid-19. The Czech cases were lodged before 2016.

Scramble for more doses

Indonesia said the delivery of 100 million AstraZeneca doses could be delayed because of export restrictions in India -- which produces the jab -- and company supply holdups.

'Covishield shelf life can't be extended'

MEDICINE

NEW DELHI: The WHO has rejected Serum Institute of India's proposal seeking extension of the shelf life of Oxford-AstraZeneca COVID-19 vaccine, Covishield, from six to nine months, citing insufficient data, sources told PTI.

The WHO has also sought a meeting with Drugs Controller General of India (DCGI) to discuss the matter, they said.

The move comes even as India's drug regulator has extended Covishield's shelf life from six to nine months from its manufacturing date.

In a recent communique to Serum Institute of India (SII), the WHO has also asked the firm to formulate the doses with enough titer.'

The DCGI in a letter to SII in Feb said it has no objection in respect of 'extension of shelf life of Covishield vaccine' in multi-dose glass vial (10 dose-5ml) from six to nine months.

Shelf life is the length of time for which an item remains fit for use.

Take these robo dogs for a walk

TECHNOLOGY

It's whip fast, obeys commands and doesn't leave unpleasant surprises on the floor -- meet the AlphaDog, a robotic response to two of China's burgeoning loves: pets and technology. The high-tech hound uses sensors and Artificial Intelligence (AI) technology to 'hear' and 'see' its environment -- and can even be taken for walks. "It's really very similar to a real dog," says Ma Jie, chief technology officer at Weilan, the company behind the product. AlphaDog follows in the paw prints of "Spot", a four-legged machine designed for industrial use by Boston Dynamics that became an internet sensation after appearing in a series of viral videos.

Afghans fight polio increase

HEALTH

Afghanistan is trying to inoculate millions of children against polio after pandemic lockdowns stalled the effort to eradicate the crippling disease. But the recent killing of three vaccinators points to the dangers facing the campaign as turmoil grows in the country. The three women were gunned down in two separate attacks on March 30 as they carried out door-to-door vaccinations in the eastern city of Jalalabad. It was the first time that vaccination workers have been killed in a decade of door-to-door inoculations against the children's disease in Afghanistan. Such attacks have been common in neighboring Pakistan.

Nepal's God of Sight ophthalmologist does hundreds of free cataract surgeries for the poor

HEALTH

LUMBINI: Just next to the Mayadevi temple where Buddha was born more than 2,600 years ago, hundreds of people lined up outside a makeshift hospital on a recent hazy day, hoping their fading eyesight could be restored.

A day later, these saffron-robed Buddhist monks, old farmers and housewives were able to see the world again because the nation's renowned eye surgeon Dr. Sanduk Ruit was there with his innovative and inexpensive cataract surgery that has earned him many awards.

At the visitor center turned into eye temporary hospital in Lumbini, located 288 kilometers south west of Nepal's capital Kathmandu, the assembly line surgery made it possible for the nearly 400 patients to get Ruit's surgery in just three days.

Ruit, also known as Nepal's "God of Sight" said, "It is important that the people do receive equitable service and not that haves receive and have nots don't receive it. I want to make sure that everybody receives it."

Many people in Nepal, most of them poor, have benefited from Ruit's work where he founded the Tilganga Institute of Ophthalmology in Kathmandu and regularly visits remote villages high in the mountains and low lands of the Himalayan nation, taking with him a team of experts and equipment bringing surgery to their villages.

The whole objective, aim and my passion and love is to see there remain no people with unnecessary blindness in this part of the world

Dr. Sanduk Ruit

Ruit has already performed some 1,30,000 cataract surgeries and is now aiming to expand his work, taking it to as many countries as possible through a foundation he has formed with a British philanthropist Tej Kohli which targets 5,00,000 surgeries in the next five years.

Ruit said the idea of the Tej Kohli Ruit Foundation is to make cataract surgeries in Nepal affordable and accessible to all. "We will scale it up globally to other parts of the world where it is needed."

Ruit began his work in 1984 when the surgery was done by removing the entire cloudy cataract and giving thick glasses. He found that most people would not wear these glasses and chances of complication were very high. So he pioneered a simple technique where he removes the cataract without stitches through small incisions and replaces them with a low-cost artificial lens.
